

ROOSEVELT AT PITTSBURG, COCKRAN AT TAMMANY HALL.

President, Greeted by Half a Million People, Declares We Must Give Cuba Reciprocity—Bourke Cockran Signals Return to Tammany by Denouncing the Administration and Extolling Democracy.

Two notable Fourth of July orations were delivered to-day—one by President Roosevelt, at Pittsburgh, and the other by W. Bourke Cockran, at Tammany Hall.

The President was greeted by a half million people. His speech was a new declaration of commercial freedom for Cuba. He expressed regret that a measure of reciprocity is not already embodied in statute or treaty, but declared it will be "JUST AS SURE AS FATE." He said it was most appropriate that on this Fourth of July it should be our good fortune to have PROMULGATED THE DECLARATION ESTABLISHING

PEACE IN THE PHILIPPINES, but showed greater interest in Cuba by declaring that "THIS NATION IS BOUND TO GIVE HER SPECIAL PRIVILEGES NOT GIVEN TO OTHER NATIONS."

At the big Fourth of July celebration at Tammany Hall to-day Bourke Cockran denounced the Republican party, the Administration and the tendency of both toward imperialism. He extolled Democracy and made a plea for harmony on the issues urged at the Tilden Club reunion.

FIVE OF FAMILY INJURED BY EXPLOSION OF POWDER.

Little Girl Dropped Lighted Punk Into Can While They Were Celebrating.

A can, containing several pounds of powder exploded on the porch of the residence of a family named Colombo, on Palisades avenue, West New York, N. J., to-day, and as a result two of the children are in St. Mary's Hospital, Hoboken, suffering from serious burns, while the mother and two other children are at their home under a physician's care.

The injured are Antonio Colombo, twenty years old, and his brother Louis, who were badly injured about the face, hands and head.

Two small children, Mary, six years old, and Paul, three, and the mother, were burned about the face and body. The girl had all her hair burned off her head.

Antonio, one of the sons, was getting a cannon ready to fire and had removed the cover from the can, containing the powder, when his sister dropped a piece of lighted punk with which she was setting off the fireworks into the can. Immediately there was an explosion. The family ran screaming to the street, the little girl's hair all aflame. Mr. Justin was summoned and ordered the two older sons removed to the hospital.

The piazza was burning when the firemen arrived.

ambulance from St. John's Hospital, Long Island City, arrived. At the hospital the surgeons said Schmauhl could not recover.

The charge in the cannon was heavy and broke the metal in many places. Several of the pieces narrowly missed bystanders.

Doctors Busy With Day's Victims.

Ambulance surgeons and private physicians were kept on the run to-day attending persons injured in reckless celebration. Several accidents from stray bullets were reported and the small boy with injuries received in strenuous patriotic effort seemed more in evidence than the more serious cases.

All the hospitals had an extra force of surgeons and nurses.

Here are the more serious cases treated:

Walter Beck, ten years, of No. 331 East Twenty-fourth street, was playing with fireworks at Second avenue and Twenty-fourth street when his right hand was badly burned by powder. He went to Bellevue Hospital, where his injury was attended to.

The first finger on the left hand of William Flanagan, thirty years old, was blown off by a large firecracker. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital.

Robert Johnson, thirteen years old, of No. 348 East Ninety-second street, while playing in front of his residence with a toy pistol, accidentally shot himself in the breast. He was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital.

John Flanagan, nine years old, of No. 404 East One Hundred and Forty-second street, while playing with firecrackers in front of his residence, accidentally shot himself in the hand. He was taken to the Lincoln Hospital.

Daniel Burke, eleven years old, of No. 301 East One Hundred and Forty-second street, shot himself in the right side at his residence with a discharging cannon. He was taken to the Lincoln Hospital.

Lillie Wash, ten years old, of No. 257 West One Hundred and Forty-seventh street, was taken to the City Hospital from her residence, suffering from a pistol shot in the left leg. She was wounded by a person not known to the police.

Robert Johnson, thirteen years old, of No. 348 East Ninety-second street, accidentally shot himself in the breast with a toy pistol. He was removed to the Presbyterian Hospital.

Max Miller, twenty-eight years old, of right eye blown out in a saloon at the corner of Seventeenth avenue and Lily street, the premises of a saloon, was taken to the Lincoln Hospital.

Constantino, forty-eight years old, of No. 23 Monroe street, was shot by a revolver in front of his residence on Thirtieth street. He was taken to the Lincoln Hospital.

George Buhler, fifteen years old, of No. 65 East One Hundred and Forty-seventh street, was severely injured by the explosion of a firecracker at Third avenue. He was taken to the Lincoln Hospital.

Joseph Hirsch, twenty years old, of No. 7 State street, Brooklyn, while riding in a Bergen street car at Nassau and Third streets, Brooklyn, was shot through the right ear by a boy on the sidewalk. The boy escaped.

David Hirsch, thirty years old, a non dealer, of No. 129 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street, while walking on Thirtieth street, was shot through the head. He was attended by a doctor while he expired. It is not known who fired the pistol.

NEWARK, N. J., July 4.—Joseph Marino, fifty-two years old, fell backward down the stairs of his home, No. 11 Newark street, splitting his head. He died in the City Hospital.

Harry Dietz, nine years old, of No. 11 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn, held a cannon cracker while it exploded. He was sent to St. Charles Hospital.

Charles Strobel, eighteen years old, was stabbed by strange men in front of his home at No. 68 Stanton street, because he protested against their shooting Roman candles at him.

Antonio Segro, sixteen years old, and Frank Prastio, thirteen, held huge cannon crackers between them while they went off. Segro, from the Gouverneur Hospital, attended Antonio's wounds and dressed the three burns on Frank's right hand. They are at their home at No. 123 West Third street.

STRAY BULLET MAY KILL RICH MAN.

David Hirsch, sixty-six years old, living at No. 139 East One Hundred and Forty-fourth street, a coal dealer, reported wealthy, was passing the corner of One Hundred and Thirtieth street and Third avenue this afternoon when he was hit by a shot from a revolver of somebody celebrating. He was carried into the office of Dr. Sternberg, No. 20 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street, and there it was found that he had been shot in the left side of the head. The bullet had penetrated the skull and was lodged against the brain. The man may die.

Mr. Hirsch was taken to his home in a private ambulance and the police of the East One Hundred and Fourth Street Station were notified.

Dr. Sternberg said the bullet had the appearance of having been discharged at a considerable distance. It was of 38-caliber. Detectives Kane and Riley, of the East One Hundred and Fourth Street Station, are looking for the celebrator who used loaded cartridges.

Dr. Sternberg said that Mr. Hirsch's death is almost certain, not only because of the extremely dangerous character of the wound, but because of the fact that he is patient and also the fact that he was just recovering from an attack of illness.

SCARED TO DEATH BY FIRECRACKER.

The "Fourth's" first death was recorded this morning when James Kelly dropped dead when a giant firecracker exploded near where he sat. He was reading a newspaper in the sitting-room of Clara's Hotel, corner of Vernon avenue and Fifth street, Long Island City, when some mischievous person threw a lighted firecracker into the room. It exploded with a terrific report. Kelly sprang from his seat, pressed his left hand against his heart and fell back upon the sand bed. He died. Kelly was thirty-five years of age and lived at Jackson avenue and Fourth street. He was afflicted with heart disease.

LEG TORN OFF BY CANNON EXPLOSION.

William Schmauhl, twenty-two years old, was loading a small brass cannon in front of his home, No. 371 Flushing avenue, Astoria, this afternoon when it exploded and tore off his right leg near the hip.

Compensations bound the wound with rope to check the flow of blood until an
